Dignity Prayer Bulletin February 2010

Pray, Make a Difference...

Decisions....Decisions....

Isaiah 37:14 shows Hezekiah the king threatened by the armies of Sennacherib and Assyria. They had laid waste all before them and the city of Jerusalem was next on the list. Hezekiah not knowing what to do, spreads the threatening messages from Sennacherib before the Lord and asks him to intervene.... Assyria was defeated.

At this present time Dignity needs wisdom. Over the next few months, there are many people who we will interact with to be part of the work that the Lord has called us to do, both in the UK and in Africa.

We need wisdom to know who to take on, who to trust, who to avoid. The questions and potential hurdles are quite substantial.

Just like King Hezekiah, we want to spread all of the applications and relationships that we have before the Lord and ask him to intervene and to keep guard over the path that we are on.

Whilst we are not facing a mighty army, we are facing an enemy who wants to defeat us in our aims. Please pray for wisdom, discernment and open eyes in all of the people we approach and build relationships with in the next few months.

- Pray for our work in the United Kingdom. As Jon and Jude move to Zambia we are looking to appoint a Mission Leader here in the UK. The interviews are ongoing at this time. Please pray that we will get the correct person for this crucial role. Pray also for the successful filling of our office post as well.
- In July this year we are seeking to begin a strategy of gathering people who are called to the work of an evangelist and community transformation. We hope to do this in the Zambian capital, Lusaka. To achieve this, we need to rely on recommendations, relationships and by definition we do not know a lot of these people at the current time. Pray that God himself will draw people to the conference who must be there for the future strategic direction of Dignity's evangelistic work.
- Pray that those in the villages will also be guided to the right people who can plant new groups and help existing ones to grow. Pray that the gift of discernment will be distributed liberally to all of those involved in the rural areas.
