Dignity Prayer Bulletin June 2009

Pray, Make a Difference...

The Target

Part of Dignity's work is to enable people from the UK to be involved with work in Africa. This august, a 2 week project will work with IcFEM a partner in Western Kenya in community transformation. They will have the opportunity to learn about mission first hand and also give their valuable time to the people in the communities of Kimilili, Western Kenya.

IcFEM (InterChristian Fellowships Evangelical Mission) is based in the western town of Kimilili, though they also work in rural areas right across the district. Like Dignity, their goal is to accelerate community transformation – Community groups study the Bible and engage practically in changing their community.

They are working with almost 20,000 people through this strategy and are exploring opportunities for more growth. Alongside this work they provide training/opportunities in sanitation, agriculture, health-care, evangelism and many more.

The team are: Steve and Sarah Small, Rachel Fearnely, Julie Ventress, James and Caz Guard, Tony Smith, David Hodgkinson and Hannah and Stephen Rablen.

This month: Pray for the team and their work with IcFEM.

- Pray for the team that they would each travel safely, stay healthy and get on well with one another
- Pray for opportunities to share our faith and also to hear about faith in rural Kenya
- Pray that IcFEM would continue and grow in all that God is calling them to do, that the Kingdom would be advanced in rural Kenya through them
- Pray that relationships between the team and in Kenya have good foundations for now and the future.
- Each team member needs to raise their own finance to participate within the trip. Please pray that they will be able to have faith in God's provision for them.
- Pray that all of the details for the trip come together
- Pray that the team would encourage the work of IcFEM and take every opportunity to do so.
- Pray for those people who live in Western Kenya, that they would discover a vibrant exciting and dynamic relationship with God.
