Dignity Mission Opportunities

2010

Fancy working with people in Zambia?

“Dignity exists for one reason: to pioneer ways in which our hope in Jesus can transform lives into ways of loving others”

Throughout 2010, Dignity have a number of opportunities available:

Planters Conference (Late July 2010, circa 10 days)

This exciting opportunity is to ‘train the planters’ and work into the lives of people from all over Zambia and elsewhere. Selected pairs from various locations in Zambia will be coming together to be trained in how to plant the Life! Initiative. We are looking for people who have experience of ministry and speaking to join Jon Witt in leading this strategic time.

Life! for everyone (Mid - Late September 2010, circa 21 days)

The Life! Initiative has led to groups being planted in various places across Zambia. These groups meet to study the Bible, pray and encourage one another each week. We believe in the potential of these people to change the very villages that they reside in. To this end, we want to help our Life! groups look at how they can do this practically in working with children, caring for the community and providing for the poor. The time will be spent in small teams working directly with the groups in the villages, for 2-3 days at a time).

Life! Conferences (Mid - Late October 2010, circa 21 days)

The Life! Initiative has already been planted in three locations in Zambia. At the time of writing 800-1000 attend 50 or so groups scattered across Zambia. To put it simply, we believe God has called us to plant this initiative everywhere. Following on from our strategic work in July, we want to support people as they seek to begin the Life! Initiative in their area. Our work will be to assist running training in the Life! Initiative, the why? how? and what will we do’s of the work. Over the 21 days, you will be involved in running 3 conferences throughout Zambia.

Life! Planting Team (August to November 2010, circa 3 months)

An excellent 3 month opportunity to be involved in planting the Life! Initiative in an area working with Dignity’s leader Jon Witt. This involves pioneering ministry and being gifted in relationships, evangelism and having some experience in these lines of work is essential. A great opportunity to be involved in front line work!
